Published on Jisc community (https://community.jisc.ac.uk)

Internet intermediaries - networks and websites

Various consultations relate to what internet intermediaries, such as websites and networks, either must or must not do in relation to their users' activities. These include circumstances in which intermediaries may be legally liable for the actions of their users.

Source URL: https://community.jisc.ac.uk/library/consultations/internet-intermediaries-networks-and-websites