

Customer-owned routing equipment

The Managed Router Service can be offered on customer-owned routing equipment, subject to agreement of the the Janet Network Engineering Group. In this situation router maintenance will not be covered by the Janet maintenance contract and the customer will be responsible for maintaining the router.

Customers should be aware that once Janet take on the management of the routing equipment the site will no longer have access to make any configuration changes.

Source URL: <https://community.ja.net/library/janet-services-documentation/customer-owned-routing-equipment>